Warm clothes, toiletries and bedding required—The showers are now open for people to use. We have noted that many of those who come in for a shower are in need of clean, dry, warm clothing as well as toothbrushes, moisturizer and other everyday items that we all take for granted. If you have any warm jerseys, jackets, warm socks you can donate, or a new toothbrush, toothpaste or moisturizer please leave these with the office.

We also have one person who is in need of a sleeping bag or warm blankets. Any help you are able to provide will be gratefully received.

Leaders Meeting news—Leaders Meeting heard that Hugh Laurenson has decided to train as a lay preacher. Hugh undertakes this training with the full support and encouragement of the Leaders Meeting. A support group has been established and Hugh will undertake one paper during this semester at Trinity College. We all wish you well Hugh and look forward to your first service as a lay preacher.

Semisi Pohiva was appointed as one of our representatives to Lower North Island Synod. Semisi will join Colin Scarf and Nicola at Synod. We thank you for your willingness to represent us at Synod.

Our Conference representative this year will be Daphne Pilaar. Conference will be held in November.
